Wildlife on Your Doorstep

Tuesday, 20th July 2021 at 10.30 on Zoom

Tom Way is a brilliant young photographer who has won many awards including European Wildlife Photographer of the Year. He has already won great acclaim for his presentations to many u3as as well as numerous other organisations. He travels all over the world capturing wonderful images of Tigers, Lions and Elephants. In this talk he emphasizes all the fantastic wildlife there is to see and photograph right here on our doorsteps, from Deer to Hedgehogs and from Owls to Foxes. He will not only show you his wildlife images from our local area but also describe the stories behind how he took them. He will also branch out to talk about our coastlines and more northerly areas of the UK. His head-on image of a Puffin about to land is a particular favourite. His talk will appeal both to photographers and wildlife enthusiast and is one not to be missed.
